Dear Harold: 7/7/71

"The note" translates into a threat on McGovern but it appears to be the odd product of an antiquarian (Old English Lit) crank mixing his predilection with Kearny handled assassinations allusions.

Outre and probably insignificant when you consider that safety declines only in proportion to propinquity to power.

Some believe J.G. is being framed" but I have reservations.

Certainly, anything seems possible given his mental status as witness this background info. from The World of Flying Saucers on Fred L. Chrisman, a man he called to testify before The Grand Jury in 1968. His "testimony" thankfully wasn't rehearsed.

What are your thoughts? Jerry told me of your work on Tiger and Agent Oswald.

Frankly, the format has both greater commercial and communication possibilities as well as a broader audience potential base.

Best Wishes,
